PROJECTS

2024/10 – 2024/11	Employee Management System I developed an Employee Management System using the PHP Laravel framework, providing a robust and efficient solution for managing employee data. This project features user-friendly interfaces for handling employee records, attendance, payroll, and performance metrics. Additionally, I implemented an effective database management system using ERM (Entity-Relationship Modeling), ensuring seamless data integration, accuracy, and scalability for improved organizational operations.
2024/09 – 2024/11	Student Information Management System I developed a Student Information Management System using core PHP, providing an efficient platform for managing student records, grades, attendance, and personal details. The system ensures streamlined data access, modification, and reporting, with a focus on user-friendly interfaces. Additionally, I designed and managed the database structure to ensure seamless data organization, security, and integrity, optimizing performance and scalability for future enhancements.
